

I pay to have my phone and should have the ability to restrict who calls me on my phone. Unless the FCC is going to pay my phone bill then they should have no right to say who I can restrict from calling my home.